Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from Barre.

C. A. Churchill, 35 Merchant street, Barre, Vt., says: "I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills in 1897 after I had taken them a short time and had found the best of results. After that, I continued their use and was entirely relieved of backaches, pains across my loins and other symptoms of kidney trouble. During the time that has since elapsed, I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions, getting them at Drown's drug store, and the same good results have always been received. I have also advised their use to friends and acquaintances whom I have heard complaining of backache."

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"Paid in Full Coming to the Barre Opera House September 14.

So wide is the fame of Eugene Walter's "Paid in Full," that the announcement that it will be presented here at the opera house next Wednesday evening, September 14, will stir liveliest expectancy on the part of theatre patrons of every mind and taste. No play ever produced in this country has been so much talked about and written about as "Paid in Full," none has been enjoyed by so many millions of theatre-goers, therefore indifferent indeed to the greatest features of the stage is the person who has not a keen appreciation of this noted drama of to-day, which, to quote one eminent critic, "is a story that is walking up and down the streets, those men and women are those with whom we daily rub elbows." Of this celebrated play, Harper's Weekly says: "It is just what it should be—quick, alert, full of interest." There is convincing proof that the vast public endorses this judgment of "Paid in Full" and finds it just what it should be. "Paid in Full" piled up the enormous run of an unbroken two years in New York, and throughout last season five companies were playing it all over the country.

Never before had a play been presented by so many companies. Cities could not see it often enough. It returned five and six times to many places, always to bigger audiences than before. After the two years' New York run, there were many return engagements on the part of the various companies, so that the several organizations had their turn in the big city and never failed to score. Hence every "Paid in Full" company can rightfully be called a New York cast, and those who witness the coming performance here will see exactly what Broadway saw and admired.

DRY CORN FOR HOGS.

Results of Experiments Made by the Iowa Agricultural Station.

The Iowa experiment station (bulletin 100) has made investigations relative to the preparation of corn for hogs. Six forms of corn were tested: dry ear corn, soaked shelled corn, dry cornmeal, soaked cornmeal, dry corn and cob meal and soaked corn and cob meal. The experiment included 312 hogs of all ages, fed in thirty-two lots. The results were summarized and

DURCO-TRENNY BARROW.

Fed dry cornmeal and meat meal eighty-four days; weight at start, 400 pounds; gain, 217 pounds, or 2.55 pounds a day.]

The conclusions drawn that dry corn is highly relished by hogs and the most convenient to feed. Owing to the greater time required to masticate it, pigs ate it more slowly than soaked corn and cornmeal.

The fastest and most economical gains were obtained by feeding dry ear corn until the hogs were close to 200 pounds in weight. Attention is called to the fact that whether fed dry or soaked before feeding, a bushel of corn ground without the cob made more pork than a bushel of corn ground with the cob. A bushel of ear corn made as much gain as one and one-third bushels ground into corn and cobmeal at the expense of 6 cents a bushel.

Writing on this subject, the American Swineherd says:

The farmer who makes a practice of raising grain exclusively, hauling it to the elevator and selling it is robbing himself, or in other words, depleting the fertility of the farm.

Every year as the crop is gathered and sold off the place it is left with decreased productive power for the future. It is like mining and shipping to the value of the soil and shipping to the market. It is selling your farm virtually through the elevator.

Selling the corn by the hog route or through any other live stock is retaining the fertility. By a proper system of diversified farming and rotation of crops you can build up and improve instead of destroying the productive-ness.
